Structure your ideas and create a social action project

What is a Solidarity Project?

An activity that a young person can carry out in a group of five people or more to help to bring about positive change to the local community.

The project can last from two to 12 months.

The project should address key challenges within the community and be related to European Solidarity Corps wider topics below such as:

- Solidarity
- Democracy and citizenship
- Societal challenges
- Strengthening communities
- Social inclusion
